

Medium Term Planning

Year 5

English	Mathematics
Year 5 begin this half term by completing an explanation	We begin this half term by focusing on fractions, which text linked to previous learning on earthquakes and	includes adding, subtracting and multiplying fractions.
volcanoes. Following this, we will be writing a fictional text	This knowledge will be proceeded by learning about the around a 'Warning Tale'. We aim to complete the term by	relationship between fractions, decimals and writing a newspaper report. Throughout the half term we	percentages. Times tables practise and daily arithmetic will continue to focus on comprehension, grammar,	continue throughout the half term.
punctuation, handwriting and spelling.
Art & Design	Computing
Art lessons this half term will be based around designing	Year 5 will use the sphero technology to further learn and making sculptures. This will involve using clay and	about input and output devices, programming using choosing the correct tools to mould, carve and cut. This	movement and repetition, random variables and de-links into our history topic of Ancient Greece.	bugging.
Design & Technology	Geography
This half term we will be designing and creating our own	Next half term, the children will be exploring the torches. Pupils will identify electrical products and explain	topographical features of North America. We will learn why they are useful. The will be able to understand the	about the many famous physical features of this features of a torch, detailing these through an exploded	continent. The children will compare the human and diagram and explaining what makes a torch successful.	physical features of a The Lake District to that of the Rocky Mountains in North America.
History	Music
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient	Music Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time	Music Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make	Music Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as	Music Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their understanding of reading and interpreting musical notes
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as ordering key dates chronologically and describing the	Music Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as ordering key dates chronologically and describing the influences the Greek civilisation had throughout history.	Music Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their understanding of reading and interpreting musical notes in order to play their ukulele independently.
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as ordering key dates chronologically and describing the influences the Greek civilisation had throughout history. Personal Social Health Economics (PSHE)	Music Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their understanding of reading and interpreting musical notes in order to play their ukulele independently. Physical Education (PE)
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as ordering key dates chronologically and describing the influences the Greek civilisation had throughout history. Personal Social Health Economics (PSHE) Pupils will explore staying safe online and understanding	Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their understanding of reading and interpreting musical notes in order to play their ukulele independently. Physical Education (PE) This half term Year 5 will be Outdoor adventure. We will
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as ordering key dates chronologically and describing the influences the Greek civilisation had throughout history. Personal Social Health Economics (PSHE) Pupils will explore staying safe online and understanding puberty and the changing body. Year 5 will be able to	Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their understanding of reading and interpreting musical notes in order to play their ukulele independently. Physical Education (PE) This half term Year 5 will be Outdoor adventure. We will be learning about orienteering and map reading skills.
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as ordering key dates chronologically and describing the influences the Greek civilisation had throughout history. Personal Social Health Economics (PSHE) Pupils will explore staying safe online and understanding puberty and the changing body. Year 5 will be able to discuss the changes which each gender goes through whilst	Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their understanding of reading and interpreting musical notes in order to play their ukulele independently. Physical Education (PE) This half term Year 5 will be Outdoor adventure. We will be learning about orienteering and map reading skills. The pupils will be developing their team building and
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as ordering key dates chronologically and describing the influences the Greek civilisation had throughout history. Personal Social Health Economics (PSHE) Pupils will explore staying safe online and understanding puberty and the changing body. Year 5 will be able to	Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their understanding of reading and interpreting musical notes in order to play their ukulele independently. Physical Education (PE) This half term Year 5 will be Outdoor adventure. We will be learning about orienteering and map reading skills. The pupils will be developing their team building and organisation skills which will suport success when to
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as ordering key dates chronologically and describing the influences the Greek civilisation had throughout history. Personal Social Health Economics (PSHE) Pupils will explore staying safe online and understanding puberty and the changing body. Year 5 will be able to discuss the changes which each gender goes through whilst being able to accurately name relevant parts of the body.	Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their understanding of reading and interpreting musical notes in order to play their ukulele independently. Physical Education (PE) This half term Year 5 will be Outdoor adventure. We will be learning about orienteering and map reading skills. The pupils will be developing their team building and organisation skills which will suport success when to navigating and problem solving.
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as ordering key dates chronologically and describing the influences the Greek civilisation had throughout history. Personal Social Health Economics (PSHE) Pupils will explore staying safe online and understanding puberty and the changing body. Year 5 will be able to discuss the changes which each gender goes through whilst being able to accurately name relevant parts of the body. Religious Education (RE)	Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their understanding of reading and interpreting musical notes in order to play their ukulele independently. Physical Education (PE) This half term Year 5 will be Outdoor adventure. We will be learning about orienteering and map reading skills. The pupils will be developing their team building and organisation skills which will suport success when to navigating and problem solving. Science
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as ordering key dates chronologically and describing the influences the Greek civilisation had throughout history. Personal Social Health Economics (PSHE) Pupils will explore staying safe online and understanding puberty and the changing body. Year 5 will be able to discuss the changes which each gender goes through whilst being able to accurately name relevant parts of the body. Religious Education (RE) Year 5 will continue to investigate concepts relating to	Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their understanding of reading and interpreting musical notes in order to play their ukulele independently. Physical Education (PE) This half term Year 5 will be Outdoor adventure. We will be learning about orienteering and map reading skills. The pupils will be developing their team building and organisation skills which will suport success when to navigating and problem solving. Science Science lessons this half term will centre around living
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as ordering key dates chronologically and describing the influences the Greek civilisation had throughout history. Personal Social Health Economics (PSHE) Pupils will explore staying safe online and understanding puberty and the changing body. Year 5 will be able to discuss the changes which each gender goes through whilst being able to accurately name relevant parts of the body. Religious Education (RE) Year 5 will continue to investigate concepts relating to death, including understanding the meaning of	Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their understanding of reading and interpreting musical notes in order to play their ukulele independently. Physical Education (PE) This half term Year 5 will be Outdoor adventure. We will be learning about orienteering and map reading skills. The pupils will be developing their team building and organisation skills which will suport success when to navigating and problem solving. Science Science lessons this half term will centre around living things and their habitats. Pupils will be able to describe
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as ordering key dates chronologically and describing the influences the Greek civilisation had throughout history. Personal Social Health Economics (PSHE) Pupils will explore staying safe online and understanding puberty and the changing body. Year 5 will be able to discuss the changes which each gender goes through whilst being able to accurately name relevant parts of the body. Religious Education (RE) Year 5 will continue to investigate concepts relating to death, including understanding the meaning of reincarnation and karma. This will be explored through	Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their understanding of reading and interpreting musical notes in order to play their ukulele independently. Physical Education (PE) This half term Year 5 will be Outdoor adventure. We will be learning about orienteering and map reading skills. The pupils will be developing their team building and organisation skills which will suport success when to navigating and problem solving. Science Science lessons this half term will centre around living things and their habitats. Pupils will be able to describe the different life cycles of mammals, amphibians and
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as ordering key dates chronologically and describing the influences the Greek civilisation had throughout history. Personal Social Health Economics (PSHE) Pupils will explore staying safe online and understanding puberty and the changing body. Year 5 will be able to discuss the changes which each gender goes through whilst being able to accurately name relevant parts of the body. Religious Education (RE) Year 5 will continue to investigate concepts relating to death, including understanding the meaning of reincarnation and karma. This will be explored through creating a safe space and a nurturing environment whereby	Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their understanding of reading and interpreting musical notes in order to play their ukulele independently. Physical Education (PE) This half term Year 5 will be Outdoor adventure. We will be learning about orienteering and map reading skills. The pupils will be developing their team building and organisation skills which will suport success when to navigating and problem solving. Science Science lessons this half term will centre around living things and their habitats. Pupils will be able to describe the different life cycles of mammals, amphibians and birds as well as describing the life process of
This half term, Year 5 will be learning all about the Ancient Greeks. They will study how this civilisation grew over time and access historical sources about them. We will make comparisons between ancient times and today as well as ordering key dates chronologically and describing the influences the Greek civilisation had throughout history. Personal Social Health Economics (PSHE) Pupils will explore staying safe online and understanding puberty and the changing body. Year 5 will be able to discuss the changes which each gender goes through whilst being able to accurately name relevant parts of the body. Religious Education (RE) Year 5 will continue to investigate concepts relating to death, including understanding the meaning of reincarnation and karma. This will be explored through	Year 5 continue to have the opportunity to participate in weekly ukulele lessons learning to play together in time following a beat and rhythm. Pupils will develop their understanding of reading and interpreting musical notes in order to play their ukulele independently. Physical Education (PE) This half term Year 5 will be Outdoor adventure. We will be learning about orienteering and map reading skills. The pupils will be developing their team building and organisation skills which will suport success when to navigating and problem solving. Science Science lessons this half term will centre around living things and their habitats. Pupils will be able to describe the different life cycles of mammals, amphibians and birds as well as describing the life process of reproduction in some plants and animals.

In our French lessons we will be centred around leisure time and our hobbies. As well as learning new vocabulary, we will continue to develop our pronunciation of French words, beginning to accurately write simple sentences and phrases.