Music Home Learning!

This week North Tyneside Music Education Hub have launched NTMEH Music Takeaway!

To access this amazing free resource please click on the link <https://youtu.be/ZTmfHPXqaAI>

This is designed to support you with home learning in music. North Tyneside's team of music tutors have been devising this and will continue to update it regularly over the coming weeks and months.

Track of the week will be launched every Monday.

The activities are suitable for all ages and there is a resource bank to enable access for all.

Each week there will be a new piece of music to listen to and some suggestions for different activities to try at home. They don't involve expensive equipment or a huge amount of musical expertise - you can use anything which makes a sound, pots and pans from the kitchen will do!

Have fun with the whole family doing this! You can share your work with the music team at: ntmeh.music@ntlp.org.uk

Good luck and stay safe. #rdpsfamily
