

Medium Term Planning

Year 4

Autumn 2023 First Half Term

English	Mathematics
We start the term with our Poetry Week. We will be poets	We start our Year 4 maths learning by considering the by writing and performing our own limericks. Then we will	importance of place value and recognising different learn all about how to write a quest tale inspired by our	ways of representing numbers up to 1000. The class Anglo Saxon topic. Our non-fiction unit will focus on	will use a range of skills to partition these numbers. current affairs and how audiences are informed by	We will then further our understanding of addition and journalists.	subtraction using mental and written methods.
Art & Design	Computing
Using Anthony Gormley as an inspiration we will learn	Year 4 will focus on learning the immense importance how to design and bring a sculpture to life. We will then	of online safety and how to navigate a range of learn about collage art which will use skills such as	technological devices successfully. We will learn about overlapping and layering.	the advantages of the online world.
Design & Technology	Geography
Next half term, we will learn about food and nutrition. We	Next half term, we will enjoy learning all about will explore different food groups to highlight the	mountain and rivers of the world, including a field trip importance of eating a balanced diet. We will also explore	to our local Ouseburn River.
eating seasonal and locally produced food. We can't wait to use our cookery room!
History	Music
Our topic this half term is The Anglo-Saxons. We will use	We can't wait to start honing our skills with the
	_
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change.	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group.
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change. Personal Social Health &amp; Citizenship Education (PSHCE)	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group. Physical Education (PE)
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change. Personal Social Health &amp; Citizenship Education (PSHCE) Our topic this term is all about 'Being Me in my world'.	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group. Physical Education (PE) We will focus on developing a wide range of skills
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change. Personal Social Health &amp; Citizenship Education (PSHCE) Our topic this term is all about 'Being Me in my world'. We will discuss why being listened to and listening to	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group. Physical Education (PE) We will focus on developing a wide range of skills needed for team games. This includes, attacking and
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change. Personal Social Health &amp; Citizenship Education (PSHCE) Our topic this term is all about 'Being Me in my world'. We will discuss why being listened to and listening to others is important in our school community, explain	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group. Physical Education (PE) We will focus on developing a wide range of skills needed for team games. This includes, attacking and defending, communication and working
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change. Personal Social Health &amp; Citizenship Education (PSHCE) Our topic this term is all about 'Being Me in my world'. We will discuss why being listened to and listening to others is important in our school community, explain what being democratic means and how it helps us and	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group. Physical Education (PE) We will focus on developing a wide range of skills needed for team games. This includes, attacking and defending, communication and working collaboratively. The children will analyse their
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change. Personal Social Health &amp; Citizenship Education (PSHCE) Our topic this term is all about 'Being Me in my world'. We will discuss why being listened to and listening to others is important in our school community, explain what being democratic means and how it helps us and others to feel valued.	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group. Physical Education (PE) We will focus on developing a wide range of skills needed for team games. This includes, attacking and defending, communication and working collaboratively. The children will analyse their performance and consider how to improve.
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change. Personal Social Health &amp; Citizenship Education (PSHCE) Our topic this term is all about 'Being Me in my world'. We will discuss why being listened to and listening to others is important in our school community, explain what being democratic means and how it helps us and others to feel valued. Religious Education (RE)	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group. Physical Education (PE) We will focus on developing a wide range of skills needed for team games. This includes, attacking and defending, communication and working collaboratively. The children will analyse their performance and consider how to improve. Science
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change. Personal Social Health &amp; Citizenship Education (PSHCE) Our topic this term is all about 'Being Me in my world'. We will discuss why being listened to and listening to others is important in our school community, explain what being democratic means and how it helps us and others to feel valued. Religious Education (RE) During Autumn 1, we will focus on The Bible and why it is	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group. Physical Education (PE) We will focus on developing a wide range of skills needed for team games. This includes, attacking and defending, communication and working collaboratively. The children will analyse their performance and consider how to improve. Science Our first unit is 'Living Things and their Habitats'. We
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change. Personal Social Health &amp; Citizenship Education (PSHCE) Our topic this term is all about 'Being Me in my world'. We will discuss why being listened to and listening to others is important in our school community, explain what being democratic means and how it helps us and others to feel valued. Religious Education (RE) During Autumn 1, we will focus on The Bible and why it is so fundamental to Christian faith. We will discuss sacred	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group. Physical Education (PE) We will focus on developing a wide range of skills needed for team games. This includes, attacking and defending, communication and working collaboratively. The children will analyse their performance and consider how to improve. Science Our first unit is 'Living Things and their Habitats'. We will explore classification keys and recognise how
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change. Personal Social Health &amp; Citizenship Education (PSHCE) Our topic this term is all about 'Being Me in my world'. We will discuss why being listened to and listening to others is important in our school community, explain what being democratic means and how it helps us and others to feel valued. Religious Education (RE) During Autumn 1, we will focus on The Bible and why it is so fundamental to Christian faith. We will discuss sacred items, discuss how Christians use the bible and look at a	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group. Physical Education (PE) We will focus on developing a wide range of skills needed for team games. This includes, attacking and defending, communication and working collaboratively. The children will analyse their performance and consider how to improve. Science Our first unit is 'Living Things and their Habitats'. We will explore classification keys and recognise how environments can change and how this has an impact
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change. Personal Social Health &amp; Citizenship Education (PSHCE) Our topic this term is all about 'Being Me in my world'. We will discuss why being listened to and listening to others is important in our school community, explain what being democratic means and how it helps us and others to feel valued. Religious Education (RE) During Autumn 1, we will focus on The Bible and why it is so fundamental to Christian faith. We will discuss sacred items, discuss how Christians use the bible and look at a range of Old and New Testament stories.	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group. Physical Education (PE) We will focus on developing a wide range of skills needed for team games. This includes, attacking and defending, communication and working collaboratively. The children will analyse their performance and consider how to improve. Science Our first unit is 'Living Things and their Habitats'. We will explore classification keys and recognise how environments can change and how this has an impact on living things.
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change. Personal Social Health &amp; Citizenship Education (PSHCE) Our topic this term is all about 'Being Me in my world'. We will discuss why being listened to and listening to others is important in our school community, explain what being democratic means and how it helps us and others to feel valued. Religious Education (RE) During Autumn 1, we will focus on The Bible and why it is so fundamental to Christian faith. We will discuss sacred items, discuss how Christians use the bible and look at a range of Old and New Testament stories. In KS2 we learn French in our Modern	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group. Physical Education (PE) We will focus on developing a wide range of skills needed for team games. This includes, attacking and defending, communication and working collaboratively. The children will analyse their performance and consider how to improve. Science Our first unit is 'Living Things and their Habitats'. We will explore classification keys and recognise how environments can change and how this has an impact on living things. Foreign Languages Curriculum (MFL)
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change. Personal Social Health &amp; Citizenship Education (PSHCE) Our topic this term is all about 'Being Me in my world'. We will discuss why being listened to and listening to others is important in our school community, explain what being democratic means and how it helps us and others to feel valued. Religious Education (RE) During Autumn 1, we will focus on The Bible and why it is so fundamental to Christian faith. We will discuss sacred items, discuss how Christians use the bible and look at a range of Old and New Testament stories. In KS2 we learn French in our Modern We will learn how to converse and write in French by th	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group. Physical Education (PE) We will focus on developing a wide range of skills needed for team games. This includes, attacking and defending, communication and working collaboratively. The children will analyse their performance and consider how to improve. Science Our first unit is 'Living Things and their Habitats'. We will explore classification keys and recognise how environments can change and how this has an impact on living things. Foreign Languages Curriculum (MFL) inking about vocabulary associated with life in school.
a range of resources to learn about how the Anglo-Saxons lived, while developing our historical skills by answering questions about the past and considering societal change. Personal Social Health &amp; Citizenship Education (PSHCE) Our topic this term is all about 'Being Me in my world'. We will discuss why being listened to and listening to others is important in our school community, explain what being democratic means and how it helps us and others to feel valued. Religious Education (RE) During Autumn 1, we will focus on The Bible and why it is so fundamental to Christian faith. We will discuss sacred items, discuss how Christians use the bible and look at a range of Old and New Testament stories. In KS2 we learn French in our Modern	recorder. Children will start by following a leader. We will look at improving our performances as individuals and as part of a group. Physical Education (PE) We will focus on developing a wide range of skills needed for team games. This includes, attacking and defending, communication and working collaboratively. The children will analyse their performance and consider how to improve. Science Our first unit is 'Living Things and their Habitats'. We will explore classification keys and recognise how environments can change and how this has an impact on living things. Foreign Languages Curriculum (MFL) inking about vocabulary associated with life in school.